MR S.G. SOTSHONGAYE

MUNICIPAL MANAGER

TERMS OF REFERENCE

FOR PROVISION OF INTERNAL AUDIT SERVICES

1. INTRODUCTION

The objectives of the Municipal Finance Management Act, 2003 as amended (MFMA) are to modernize budget and financial management practices in local government, thereby ensuring that revenue, expenditure, assets and liabilities are managed efficiently and effectively.

The Accounting Officer is in terms of Section 62(1) (a) to c (i) & (ii) of the MFMA required to have and maintain an efficient, effective and transparent systems of financial and risk management and internal control and a system of internal audit under the control and direction of the Audit Committee that is compliant with the requirements prescribed in terms of Section 165 and operating in accordance with prescribed norms and standards.

In terms of section 165 (1) of the MFMA, each municipality must have an internal audit unit which must perform the tasks prescribed in subsection 2 of the Act. In terms of section 165 (3) of this Act, the internal audit function may be outsourced if the municipality requires assistance to develop its internal capacity.

Regulation 14 (1) of the Municipal Planning and Performance Management Regulations, 2001, prescribes that a municipality must develop and implement mechanisms, systems and processes for auditing the results of performance measurements as part of its internal auditing processes.

2. PROBLEM STATEMENT

Internal Audit is strategically positioned to ensure that management creates the economic value for the efficient and effective use of resources and promote good corporate governance. The execution of Internal Audit Activity Plan (IAAP) in Mhlontlo Local Municipality is underpinned by the principles of independence, objectivity, integrity and accountability.

The Mhlontlo Municipality has established its internal auditing function in line with section 165(3) of the MFMA and has also resolved to co-source the unit as it is understaffed

3. OVERALL GOALS/ OBJECTIVES

The objective of this bid is to appoint a suitable independent Internal Audit Service Provider with competent and skilful personnel that can establish and maintain an appropriate Internal Audit Services to the Audit Committee of Mhlontlo Local Municipality and will help to promote and ensure:

- the independence of the internal audit activity and the objectivity of the internal auditors;
- broad audit coverage that is responsive to the strategic choices of the council
- adequate consideration of audit reports; and
- the implementation of audit recommendations.

4. SCOPE OF INTERNAL AUDIT WORK

4.1 The internal audit function will in consultation with the Audit Committee prepare:

- an operational plan that indicates the scope of each audit in the annual internal audit annual plan; and
- reports to the Audit Committee detailing its performance against the plan, to allow effective monitoring and intervention where necessary; and significant findings on the audits completed.

4.2 The internal audit function will also ensure:

- that an overall conclusion statement on the control environment of the municipality is prepared;
- that audit working paper files for all audits completed are stored safely and provided to relevant stakeholders when required;
- that value adding advice is provided to management regarding the management of risks;
- that assessments of operating procedures and monitoring mechanism over transfers made and received including transfers in terms of the Division of Revenue Act (DORA) are performed;
- coordination of effort with other internal and external providers of assurance to ensure proper coverage and minimize duplication of effort;
- facilitation of the roll-out of the Fraud Prevention Plan; and
- the establishment of policies and procedures to guide the Internal Audit activity.

4.3 The scope of internal audit work entails evaluating the adequacy and effectiveness of the organization systems of internal control.

This includes:

4.3.1. reviewing the reliability and integrity of financial and operating information and the means used to identify, measure, classify and report such information;

4.3.2. reviewing the systems established by management to ensure compliance with those policies, plans, procedures, laws and regulations that could have a significant impact on operations, and determine whether the organization is in compliance;

4.3.3. Reviewing the means of safeguarding assets and verifying the existence of assets;

4.3.4. Appraising the economy and efficiency with which resources are employed and identifying opportunities to improve operating performance;

4.3.5 Reviewing operations or programmes to ascertain whether results are consistent with established objectives and goals and whether the operations or programmes are being carried out as planned;

4.3.6. Perform responsibilities prescribed in terms of regulation 14(4) of the Local Government: Municipal Planning and Performance Management Regulations, 2001

4.3.7. Reviewing the planning, design, development, implementation and operation of major computer-based systems to determine whether:

- Adequate controls are incorporated in systems
- Thorough systems testing is performed at appropriate stages;
- Systems documentation is complete and accurate; and
- The needs of users met.

4.3.8. Reporting to the Audit Committee in writing regularly on the scope of reviews of good governance and any significant findings

4.4. The internal audit function must assist the accounting officer in achieving the objectives of the municipality by evaluating and developing recommendations for the enhancement or improvement of the processes through which:

- The municipality's objective and values are established and communicated;
- The accomplishment of municipality's objectives is monitored;
- Accountability is ensured; and
- Corporate values are preserved.

4.5. The successful bidder should ensure that during the planning and execution of audits, the occurrence of fraud and irregularities are considered to identify serious irregularities, which might result in possible fraud; any such irregularities must be reported immediately to the Management of Mhlontlo Municipality as well as the Audit Committee without disclosing these to any members of the staff.

5. SPECIAL CONDITIONS AND SKILLS TRANSFER

5.1 The proposal must further include a recommendation to the Accounting Officer on process to establish a sustainable Internal Audit section within the municipality by:

CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

1 This Municipal Bidding Document (MBD) must form part of all bids¹ invited.

- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).² Collusive bidding is a pe se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.
- 3 Municipal Supply Regulation 38 (1) prescribes that a supply chain management policy must provide measures for the combating of abuse of the supply chain management system, and must enable the accounting officer, among others, to:
- a. take all reasonable steps to prevent such abuse;
 - b. reject the bid of any bidder if that bidder or any of its directors has abused the supply chain management system of the municipality or municipal entity or has committed any improper conduct in relation to such system; and
 - c. cancel a contract awarded to a person if the person committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of the contract.
- 4 This MBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.
- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (MBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

² Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.

6. The bidder has arrived at the accompanying bid independently from, and without consultation, communication, agreement or arrangement with any competitor. However communication between partners in a joint venture or consortium³ will not be construed as collusive bidding.
7. In particular, without limiting the generality of paragraphs 6 above, there has been no consultation, communication, agreement or arrangement with any competitor regarding:
 - (a) prices;
 - (b) geographical area where product or service will be rendered (market allocation)
 - (c) methods, factors or formulas used to calculate prices;
 - (d) the intention or decision to submit or not to submit, a bid;
 - (e) the submission of a bid which does not meet the specifications and conditions of the bid; or
 - (f) bidding with the intention not to win the bid.
8. In addition, there have been no consultations, communications, agreements or arrangements with any competitor regarding the quality, quantity, specifications and conditions or delivery particulars of the products or services to which this bid invitation relates.
9. The terms of the accompanying bid have not been, and will not be, disclosed by the bidder, directly or indirectly, to any competitor, prior to the date and time of the official bid opening or of the awarding of the contract.

³ Joint venture or Consortium means an association of persons for the purpose of combining their expertise, property, capital, efforts, skill and knowledge in an activity for the execution of a contract.
